Steps to Implement the Disabilities Act, 1995

390. SHRIRAMDAS AGARWAL:Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the steps Government have taken, till date, to implement the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 so as to enable 60 milion disabled people in this country to lead a life of dignity and honour;

(b) whether Government are aware that even the job quota of three per cent in Government jobs for the 'C and 'D' categories is not enough to do full justice to the capabilities of disabled people; and

(c) if so, whether Government propose to impress upon public/private sector organisations to provide job opportunities to them? .

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRIMATIMANEKA GANDHI): (a) A statement is laid on the Table of 4he House. (See below).

(b) and (c) Keeping in view the necessity to provide job opportunities to the persons with disabilities, a provision has already been made under the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995_k to provide not less than 3% of vacancies for persons with disability of which one per cent each shall be reserved for persons suffering from (i) blindness or low vision; (ii) hearing impairment; and (iii) locomotor disability or cerebral palsy, in the posts identified for each disability, in the estabilsihments of every appropriate Government. The Act further provides under Section 41 that appropriate Governments and the local authorities shall, within the limits of their economic capacity and development, provide incentives to employers[1] both in public and private sectors to ensure that at least five per cent of their work force is composed of persons with disabilities. The Ministry of SJ & E, in accordance with the provision, has requested the Ministry of Finance to initiate appropriate action in this regard.

Statement

The Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights & Full Participation) Act, 1995, enacted and enforced from Feb., 1996 is an important landmark in Government of India's efforts to ensure equal opportunites for persons with disabilities and their full participation in nation-building. It provides for both preventive and promotional aspects of rehabilitation like education, employment and vocational training, job reservation, research and manpower development, creation of barrier-free environment, rehabilitation for persons with disability, unemployment allowance for the disabled, special insurance scheme for disabled employees and establishment of homes for persons with severe disability etc.

The implementation of the provisions of the Act, requires a multi-sectoral collaborative approach, of all Ministries of the Central Government, the State Governments and other appropriate authorities. They have all been requested to take necessary action expeditiously. The following actions have been taken to implement various provisions of the Act:

(a) The National Handicapped Finance & Development Corporation has been operationalised with effect from 24.10.97 to support entrepreneurial activity by the disabled.

(b) Notification of Central Co-ordination Committee as per Section 3 of the Act. The Committee has undertaken two meetings so far.
